Dear Becky:

The Arizona Foundation for Legal Services & Education is proud to announce your selection as one of the 2014 recipients of the John J. Ross Memorial Award for Excellence in Law Related Education. The Foundation instituted this award in 1990 to recognize teachers who have tirelessly given their time and expertise to assist students in LRE programs and better prepare them as future citizens. You were nominated by Jody Arnold and Kelly Hawley.

In 2008 for our Officer of the Year award, we presented the award at the officer's school during a school assembly. The event was a big success as he was cheered on by his students and fellow faculty. We have decided to continue this tradition and present the John J. Ross recipients their award at their school, so they too can be recognized by those whose lives they've impacted. Our office will be coordinating with those who nominated you to plan this presentation.

We thank you for helping in our mission of "increasing access to justice for all Arizonans." The Foundation is proud to recognize your extraordinary contributions.

With Regards,

Lara Slifko
Chief Resource Officer
