

Parts of Speech Poem

Every name is called a noun as field and fountain,
street and town.

In place of a noun, the pronoun stands, as he and she clap their hands.

The adjective describes a thing, as magic wand or wedding ring.

The verb means action, something done, to read and write, to jump and run.

How things are done the adverbs tell like quickly,
slowly, badly, or well.

Preposition shows relation as in the street or at the station.

Conjunction joins in many ways-sentences, words or phrase and phrase.

The interjection cries out hark! I need an exclamation
mark!
