

Eileen Lauer Bio

General Music K – 5

Conductor, After School Choir

Voice Teacher

Eileen Lauer grew up in the Midwest near Chicago in a very musical family. She played the Viola and Violin for 15 years prior to deciding on Vocal Performance as her focus. Lauer holds a Bachelor of Music degree in Vocal Performance (Opera) as well as a Minor in Theatre, both from Indiana University, and a Master of Music degree in Vocal Performance (Opera) from North Park University, Chicago. Ms. Lauer has 40 years of professional singing experience, including Operas, Musical Theatre, myriad Guest Soloist appearances, Touring with the Notre Dame Folk Choir across Ireland, Recordings with the Folk choir, The South Bend Chamber Singers, and The Schola Clementis in Chicago as well as many Commercial Jingles with Impact Productions. She has 30 years Music teaching experience including PreK – 8, General Music, High School Voice Studio, College Lecture and Voice Studio. This is Lauer's 5th year here at Franklin. She has 3 grown children and 7 grandchildren, and one more on the way!