Remember that you can access your child's grade through the Tyler SIS parent portal.

Ms. Young

Ms. Young has worked at Franklin since it opened in 1996. She has worked in the special education department for 13 years. She taught kindergarten for five years, and second grade for five years. Ms. Young was a paraprofessional for three years when she started. She has also been a substitute teacher for all of the grades. She has four kids and eight grandchildren. Ms. Young's favorite part about her job is working with all the students.

Principal's Message

Franklin Families, Staff, and Students,

As we head into the Winter break I wanted to express my pride and gratitude to all of you. Parents thank you for your kindness and support as we work together to educate your child(ren). Teachers thank you for your time, dedication, and kindness towards our students and staff members. Students thank you for spreading our campus with kindness and generosity. Please enjoy your break and sleep in whenever you can and continue to be kind to your parents/guardians. I am very grateful and proud of each of you. Have a wonderful Winter break and a happy new year!
