

Dr. Kristen Goode has been an educator since graduating from Grand Canyon University in 1993. She spent many years as an elementary school teacher and even taught first grade for Franklin School from 1999-2008. From 2008-2013, Dr. Goode served as the administrator at Franklin before handing over the reins to move to Colorado in June of 2013. In Colorado, Dr. Goode worked as a Gifted Education Coordinator and part time Special Education teacher. Now, she is back at Franklin to help in administration and teach Junior High English. She also teaches part time for University of Phoenix.

Dr. Goode holds her Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education, her M.Ed. in Elementary Education with a specialization in Reading, and her Doctorate in Educational Administration. She is also certified as a Gifted Education Specialist and a Special Education Generalist.